Our Town

Many are following the fortunes of an antiquated Democracy in Texas. It would be refreshing indeed to note the rise of a leader who comprehends both a correction of existing government evils and the demands of modern day legislation. Thinking Democrats are weary of the stereotyped platforms that have for so many years plagued the campaigns. Candidates are frittering away momentous days by warring upon non-essentials and prating their loyalty to issues and principles about which there is no need for concern. The people are thirsting for leadership—for men with courage and capacity. Without addressing themselves to real issues such as the tax question, government economy and the evils of class legislation, political cabals and discriminatory enactments, candidates are seeking to impress their qualities of statesmanship on the people by declaring for good roads, education, law enforcement and the like, all of which are inherent qualities of proletarian sentiment and without virtue as impressive leadership. All of us are for these good things but we are getting mighty tired of feeding on husks while the deep rooted ills of government fasten themselves with ever increasing grip on both party and state.

Cameron Klan No. 111
Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.
Cameron, Texas:

I herewith tender my resignation as a member of the Ku Klux Klan to take effect immediately.

My decision in this matter has come as a result of mature deliberation and is cumulative of a number of objections to the practices of the Klan to which I cannot subscribe, chief among which is its secret political activity and the tendency on the part of its leaders to control the suffrage of its members.

The recent circulation of a referendum on the Governor's race in Texas, to my mind is indicative of a maturing political dictation to which no man who loves freedom of thought and action can subscribe. The Klan knows no party allegiance nor does it respect the qualifications of any man for public office who opposes it. I esteem the fortunes of the Democratic party above any and every kind of political cleavage be it secret or be it crowned with the garnish light of day. Secret political groups will eventually lead, if already they have not led the people into political anarchy with no lines of cleavage as to principles or party. I cannot sin against Democracy.

It has also become increasingly difficult to apologise for the corruption of Klan leaders throughout America. I have never been afraid to speak my conviction upon any question, anywhere, anytime. I simply do not know how to vacillate on any question and I am glad I have the candor to state my position.

Yours very truly,

J. B. WHITE.

One of the strong evidences that churches of this day offer of abounding vitality is their sponsorship of education as a part of their religious program. Denominational investments in educational equipment run literally into the hundreds of millions of dollars. Based upon the need of institutions for training ministers and other religious leaders, the educational system founded and maintained by the churches has grown to be an important corollary of that maintained by the state. In Texas alone the church college is making a contribution to the sum total of higher education the value of which it is impossible to measure. It is difficult to picture the effect on the state's efficiency and cultural life should all these church institutions suddenly cease to function. In the past few years there has been a decided increase by the churches in this important phase of activity. The Methodists and the Baptists have carried through successful campaigns for many millions, and recently the Southern Presbyterians have seen that their growth along educational lines has not kept pace with other re-

LILIAN ATKINSON WILL RUN FOR COUNTY CLERK

SUBMIT CANDIDACY TO DEMOCRATS OF COUNTY SUBJECT TO PRIMARY.

Miss Lilian Atkinson has announced as a candidate for the office of county clerk subject to action of the Democratic primary July 26. This announcement will be received with interest by her many friends over the county.

In making her announcement Miss Atkinson made the following statement: To the Democratic Voters of Milam County:

After mature consideration of the matter, I have decided to announce my candidacy for the office of County Clerk. I was a candidate for this office in 1922 and was defeated in a three cornered race by a plurality of less than 200 votes. The combined opposition vote in that race showed a majority of nearly 1000 votes against my successful opponent. Feeling that the people have a right to decide by majority vote who their officers are to be, I again enter the race for County Clerk. I desire to assure those who so loyally supported me two years ago that they have my sincere gratitude.

It is my hope that I may again receive the support of those kind friends and that I may receive the support of many other citizens who did not vote for me before or who did not vote at all in that campaign. My qualifications for this office are well known, I am sure, because of the former campaign. I will, therefore, not dwell upon that matter. My candidacy is submitted to the Democrats of Milam county, men and women, with the hope that I may merit your confidence and support and with the assurance that any favor you may show me will be gratefully remembered and appreciated.

Respectfully,
LILIAN ATKINSON.

"Go to Sunday School Sunday" in Cameron set for May 4 will in all probability see the largest attendance at the churches in the history of the city.

The committee in charge of the plans for this day of all days in the Sunday schools have set the goal at 1500 for that day.

This figure will be about equivalent to the residence membership of the churches, the goal set by the committee in charge of publicity is making some definite plans for advertising the day and will get its work in effect by next week.

Everywhere it is said that a great deal of interest is being taken in the movement and both pastors and laymen are working in co-operation to attain the goal that has been set.

Contest Closes Forever at 9 P. M. Sat. April 19, 1924

With only eight more working days in the Herald's Campaign, candidates are working as never before for votes that will mean an Essex Coach. The public too, is now waking up to enormity of the Herald's campaign and every one is interested in the final outcome. Every one—even the candidates themselves are wondering who the winner will be, but no one knows. In fact, were the votes known no one could tell how the outcome would be for never was the outcome of a campaign so uncertain. Only a few votes either way could change the standing of candidates in this race.

TO CANDIDATES.

Candidates must remember that even though they might be ahead, it would not be hard for someone to overcome that lead—if you are behind make that race for the lead—it can be done. You may have a plurality, but a majority is much better than a plurality. Yes one vote more than the other candidate would win for you over and above her but is that safe. Go after that Majority.

There are many people right in your own who are not taking the paper as yet—See that you get as many of them as possible. House-to-house work too is also very important. Make a house to house canvass of territory.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Never again will you have the opportunity of helping your friends to win in such a magnificent offer as

JUDGE JOHN WATSON IS CANDIDATE RE-ELECTION

DISTRICT JUDGE SERVING SECOND TERM SUBMITS CANDIDACY TO THE PEOPLE.

Judge John Watson of the Twentieth Judicial District of Texas, has announced as a candidate for re-election to that office subject to action of the Democratic primary in July.

Judge Watson is serving his second term in office. His announcement will be received with interest by his friends throughout the district which is composed of Milam county.

Few men in public office in the history of this county have attained the distinction that has come to the career of this popular judge. He numbers his friends by the thousands over the district and in other sections of the state.

As judge of the district court his record has been one of note, his efficiency and capabilities being manifest in many instances upon questions of law and the courts. During his term in the office he has presided in many district courts of Texas being frequently called to Dallas and other cities to preside in the absence of other judges of similar jurisdiction.

Judge Watson invites the support of the people to his candidacy. He will meet the people during the campaign period and will talk with them about his candidacy.

the Herald has made to them. Your friend has worked hard during this short five weeks and she is entitled to the best we have to offer, but it will take your support to put her over. Votes, votes, votes are the only winning factor in this campaign and paid subscriptions or advertising is the only way to obtain votes. Your friend is depending on you for the winning vote. You, Mr. Public, have the opportunity of laying the winning vote in your favorites hand—the question is, are you doing it? VOTE—it cost you absolutely nothing to vote—everything that you buy from candidates is worth just what you pay for it. Never was a proposition more liberal.

L. L. BLAYLOCK IN RACE FOR OFFICE OF SHERIFF

RESPONDS TO APPEAL OF FRIENDS OVER THE COUNTY. WILL MAKE RACE.

L. L. Blaylock, former sheriff of Milam county and one of the most popular and successful officers in the history of the county, has announced as a candidate for the office of sheriff subject to action of the Democratic primary in July.

The announcement that he will make the race was made by Mr. Blaylock Tuesday afternoon when he released for publication his announcement. His announcement is a response to appeals from hundreds of substantial citizens throughout Milam county who have urged him to make the race for this office.

Mr. Blaylock by reason of his former service in the office of the sheriff and wide and popular acquaintance throughout the county, his candidacy will be received with interest and his many friends will be pleased with his entry into the race.

Mr. Blaylock was born and reared in the county and is personally acquainted with the voters and is popular and well liked among the people in general.

During his term in the office of sheriff Mr. Blaylock by reason of his ability and adaption as an officer was instrumental in ferreting out many crimes and his record in handling burglary and theft cases stands as a mark of distinction known to few officers in the state. In the enforcement of other laws Mr. Blaylock's record is one of distinction also, the records in the courts showing a number of convictions for crime with which few officers will compare.

Mr. Blaylock both in and out of the office is universally respected and liked among the people who appreciate his record as a peace officer and who will receive his announcement with interest.

In the general administration of the affairs of that office aside from the enforcement of criminal laws, Mr. Blaylock had a fine record. Fines turned into the county aggregate the largest amount known to the office. In the enforcement of the prohibition laws Mr. Blaylock was handicapped by reason of the faults in the laws which have since been corrected by the legislature of the state, but in the face of these difficulties his record in this respect has few parallels in the state.

Mr. Blaylock will make an active campaign for the office and will see and talk with the voters everywhere before the election in July.

He asks the support and vote of the people and invites them to a careful consideration of his life and record both as a citizen and as sheriff of the county.

DR. W. R. NEWTON BACK FROM CHICAGO SCHOOL

CAMERON SURGEON BACK FROM TWO MONTHS COURSE IN MEDICAL SCHOOL.

Dr. W. R. Newton who since January has been attending a surgical school in Chicago, has returned to his home and practice in Cameron.

Dr. Newton is one of the expert surgeons and part owner of the Cameron Hospital. His return will be welcomed by his practice and his friends everywhere will be glad to learn of his successful sojourn in Chicago where he went to prepare himself for better service in his profession.

While in the Chicago school Dr. Newton took a course in operative surgery in the laboratory of surgical technique.

Dr. Newton come much better prepared for his large practice and friends and patrons of the Cameron Hospital will be pleased to learn of his new accomplishments.

The Presbyterians of Cameron intend to carry their full share of the state wide program of that denomination, involving the securing of $1,250,000 for the enlargement and adequate equipment of the schools and colleges under the control of the church in Texas, and for religious work at the state supported institutions.

This will be done in spite of the fact that they are just now raising funds for a new church and modern Sunday School building. The program of their Synod was very ably presented on Sunday by the Rev. E. G. Lowe of Corsicana, preaching on the theme "That which has been committed to you hold fast". Mr. Lowe pointed out that our American civilization is the greatest the world has ever seen, and that it is founded upon three institutions, the Christian Home, the Church and the School.

Mr. Lowe says, the home is not today training its children in knowledge of the Bible truth, and in manners as was the case when the present generation was growing up.

The school, under our American theory of separation of church and state, is not in a position to teach religion, so that unless we are to see civilization itself in jeopardy the Church must enter this breach. In support of this view Mr. Lowe quoted Pres. W. O. Thompson, of Ohio State University, as saying that the church would be not only untrue to their duty to the state, but false to her own need, should she fail to meet this obligation.

In conclusion Mr. Lowe offered his own life in the ministry as an example of the power of the Christian college to recruit men for the ministry. It is said that the Presbyterian church has been growing in the last few years much more rapidly than its.

ASKS SUPPORT OF PEOPLE SUBJECT TO ACTION OF DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY.

L. B. Fikes, native citizen of Milam county and known to hundreds throughout this section, has announced as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer of Milam county, subject to action of the Democratic primary in July 1924.

Mr. Fikes is well qualified for this place and is seeking election on his merits and on the service he will render the people of Milam county if elected to this office.

He is 40 years of age and was born and reared in this county. He invites the attention of the people to his candidacy and asks their support at the July primary.

Mr. Fikes has been employed by the county on the public highways of the county as a gravel checker and has in this and other ways become familiar with the handling of business which he feels in a measure will qualify him for this office.

Mr. Fikes by reason of physical disability is unable to perform manual labor and asks election to this office because he needs the position. He believes in rotation in office and asks the people to elect him to this office both because of his needs and deserving qualities.

On account of his physical disability, being paralyzed in his lower limbs, it will not be possible for him to make an active canvass but is appealing to the people everywhere for their vote and influence.

Uncle Sam Builds Highways Enough to Circle Earth

More than 8,000 miles of roads of all types were completed with federal aid during the year which ended June 30, 1923, according to a government report. This, added to the mileage completed previously, brought the total for finished projects up to 26,536 miles, or more than enough to circle the earth. The projects under construction at the close of the year amounted to 14,772 miles, and were estimated at 53 per cent complete.

Lamp Is Lighted by Wireless Transmission of Power

Just a glimpse of the future possibilities of the wireless transmission of power was given in the east recently, when an ordinary 110-volt incandescent lamp was lighted while being held a foot from a vacuum tube containing 2,000,000 cycles of alternating current. A loud speaker lacking a horn was also tested. It was a large disk, about three feet in diameter, and connected by wires and a vacuum tube with the mouthpiece. The device did away with the metallic noise, and proved it could reproduce the voice at almost any magnitude.

Payroll Card System Helps in Avoiding Mistakes

Time, expense and mistakes in computing pay of employees of a large eastern company who work on an hourly basis are saved with the use of a system of cards that indicate the length of time a man has worked and the exact amount due. When a task is started, a card, marked in fifteen-minute intervals from 7 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the evening, is punched to show the beginning hour. Another perforation is made on quitting. This card is placed upon a master card which shows the labor prices in progression from fifteen minutes up to and including eleven hours through the perforations. For the various kinds of work, seventy master cards are used in the factory. They are kept in a handy index so that they may be found immediately.

Facilitating Handling of Rowboats

Ordinarily it requires the efforts of two men to launch a rowboat, but one man can easily do the work if the rowboat is provided with a small bronze roller as shown in the drawing. The detail shows how such a roller is attached; a wooden skeg keel is fastened to the main keel at the stern by means of iron plates and lag-screws, and a recess is cut in the skeg to accommodate the roller, which is held in place by means of two bronze side plates. The roller must, of course, turn freely between these plates. A steel or iron roller should not be used, as it soon rusts and then becomes useless. The roller should be kept well greased in order to obtain the best results.

Two-Element Tube Needs No B-Batteries

Makers of reflex-circuit sets will be interested in a tube that has recently made its appearance. The tube has but two elements, hence its name—the "diode." It is said to combine the clear reproduction of the crystal with the sturdiness and reliability of the tube, and to operate on less than 1/2 amp. from a single dry cell. No B-batteries are required. It is adapted for use in all reflex circuits, and requires no adjustments for changes in wave length.

T. H. GRAVES, PIONEER CITIZEN DIES WEDNESDAY

BELOVED PIONEER PASSES AWAY AT 12 A. M. WEDNESDAY AT AGE OF 82.

Thos. H. Graves, pioneer resident of Milam county, land owner and banker, died at his home near Sharp Wednesday morning April 9, 1924, at 12 a. m. following a long illness.

The passing of this pioneer ends the life of a beloved citizen whose life has been a part of the history of this county for more than a half century and his death is mourned by hundreds throughout this section of Texas.

He was vice president of the Cameron State Bank and a director in the Burlington State Bank. He owned a large estate of land and for many years had been prominent in business and financial circles of the county.

Thomas Graves was born in Caswell county, North Carolina, Feb. 16, 1842. He was just ten years old when his parents, Dr. and Mrs. John Graves, moved to Texas and settled in Washington county. Dr. John Graves was a Dentist by profession but after moving to Texas, he engaged in farming and stock raising. He was a prominent Mason and a member of the Baptist church. Thomas Graves was sixteen years old when the family moved to Milam county.

He received such educational advantages as were offered in the localities where he grew up. At the age of nineteen, he entered the Confederate army, enlisting in 1861 in Company D, Fourth Texas Cavalry, Green's Brigade, with whom he served during the first year of the war in New Mexico and Arizona. His command then returning, he joined the forces operating west of the Mississippi River, and served in Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas until the close of the war. He took part in the recapture of Galveston in 1863. He was never wounded nor taken prisoner.

At the close of the war, he returned to Milam county where he scraped together sufficient means to buy a small pair of mules and began farming. He worked as farm and stock hand at $10.00 per month, his wage being increased as he became more valuable, until he saved a few hundred dollars which he invested in lands.

In 1880, Mr. Graves was married to Miss Addie Tribble, daughter of George C. and Rebecca Tribble, who moved to Texas from Mississippi in 1875.

Seven children were born to this union, six of whom survive: Geo. T. Graves, Cashier of the Cameron State Bank, stockman and farmer, Henry and Paul Graves of Sharp, farmers and stockmen, Mrs. Marvin Beaty of Fort Worth, Texas, Mrs.

Roger Gilliland of Tracy and Miss Gertrude Graves of Sharp.

He owned an estate consisting of 2500 acres of land, on which is situated a beautiful farm home with all modern conveniences at Lilac near Sharp, a herd of thoroughbred Hereford cattle, banking stock, etc.

He is survived by wife, six children and one sister, Mrs. Dan G. Davis of Sharp.

The funeral was conducted from the family residence Thursday afternoon at 3 p. m. April 10, 1924, by Rev. W. E. Copeland of Rockdale and Rev. Mr. Parker, of Sharp, Presbyterian ministers. Interment was made in Lilac Cemetery.

PRESBYTERIAN DINNER.

On Thursday evening the new Presbyterian manse was the scene of the Blue Hue dinner arranged for the Presbyterian church workers to further the campaign to secure educational funds for denominational institutions of learning.

Blue flowers and draperies were used in the decorative scheme. Mrs. John Watson was chairman of the committee and under her artistic supervision the dining hall was transformed into a bower of beauty. The mantel was banked with wisteria and wall roses and baskets of blue bonnets featured the chosen blue hue—Bows of blue bonnets were placed at intervals along the table and the place cards furnished by the General Assembly also carried the blue hue.

The ladies of circle number three under the leadership of Mrs. N. H. Butts were responsible for the three course dinner and their part of the program was most efficiently carried through.

Judge W. G. Gillis, in his most happy mood, presided as toastmaster and his remarks were both clever and felicitous.

Rev. H. R. McFadyen, W. E. Bitzer publicity man for the campaign, and Miss Gladys Henry, church director of the young people spoke on different phases of the campaign.

Rev. Franklin P. Henderson of Navasota delivered an inspirational address.

Mrs. Jeff Avera furnished piano music and Miss Jennie Tyson rendered a vocal solo.

This was the initial blue hue dinner to be given in the state-wide campaign for education.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to those who came to our assistance on last week when death invaded our home. We thank all who came to our assistance in any way and especially those who gave flowers. Their kindnesses will ever be remembered by us.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY.

On Monday afternoon members of the Presbyterian Auxiliary met in circles in the homes of members.

Circle one met with Mrs. Robert McLane. Plans for the year's work were discussed. Mesdames Robert McLane, Geo. Mode and Giles Avriett formed a group of census takers for the religious survey of Cameron being made by groups from all churches of the city.

Circle two met with Mrs. Van Tyson. Organization for the new fiscal year's work were effected. Mrs. Tyson is the circle leader and Mrs. N. H. Butts, secretary and treasurer. From this circle Mesdames Ben P. Atkinson and N. H. Butts volunteered for the church survey.

Circle three met with Mrs. W. G. Gillis. Organization for next year's

Rub Rheumatic Pain From Aching Joints

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain and distress. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism liniment which never disappears and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache and neuralgia.

Linger up! Get a small trial bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment, you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

DALLAS BUSINESS MAN ADDS HIS TESTIMONY

L. Coppage Tells of Relief From Stomach Trouble of 15 Years Standing and Gives Tanlac Full Credit.

"Since taking Tanlac my stomach acts and feels like new and, in fact, I am rebuilt, so to speak," is the striking statement of L. Coppage, proprietor of the Coppage Auto Works, 2101-3 North Arkard, St., Dallas, Texas. Mr. Coppage resides at 500 S. Beacon St.

The results Mr. Coppage has obtained for Tanlac are indeed remarkable, in as much as he declares, "I had suffered from indigestion for fifteen years. Often I had no desire for food and what I did eat felt like a lump in my stomach, which kept me feeling sick most of the time.

"In this condition food seemed to do me more harm than good, as I became terribly run-down, felt sluggish and had no energy. That I now eat nearly everything I want and seldom feel a touch of indigestion is all due to Tanlac. I am built up to where I feel fine and healthy in every way and am brimming with new life and energy. I believe Tanlac is equal to any case of stomach trouble."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million bottles sold.

Take Tanlac Vegetable Pills.

work was completed by the choice of Mrs. R. D. Brown as secretary and treasurer. A bible course was planned and individual pledges for mission work taken. A discussion of the White Cross plan for foreign mission work was read but no final action will be taken until after the return of Mesdames Gillis and Sapp, delegates to the Presbyterial which meets in Austin on April 22nd.

Mrs. R. D. Brown, Presbyterial Secretary Foreign Missions will also attend the Austin meeting.

Mesdames John Watson and R. D. Brown volunteered as workers on the church census.

CITY PURCHASES BLOCK MAP FOR TAX ROLL WORK

OWNERSHIP MAP AND BLOCK MAP INDEX TO AID CITY IN HANDLING ASSESSMENTS.

The city has purchased a block map index and ownership map showing the location and owners of all property situated in the city limits from the Milam County Abstract Company.

This map was accepted by the council at its last meeting, being presented by Miss Annie Stallworth, manager of the company and John Henderson.

The map is regarded as valuable to the city for the reason that it furnishes accurate information on all property in the city, showing location, name of owner and maps to accompany each addition in the city. This information is bound in permanent loose leaf ledger and all information is indexed.

In addition there is a large ownership map showing the entire plat of the city. This was made on the basis of a recent survey conducted by Quinn Walker who was employed by the city.

The map will aid the tax assessor and collector and will also aid the board of equalization in making assessments of property in the city.

The making of this map required several months.

LIVING MODELS AT THE J. P. WERNER COMPANY

STYLE SHOW ATTRACTS HUNDREDS TO RELIABLE STORE IN CAMERON.

Thursday afternoon and morning found the Reliable store packed with Ladies of the town and country side—the store was crowded to capacity—to view the Easter Style Show, the first to be attempted in this city.

Beautiful Living Models paraded. Fashions pretty frocks before the people and admiration was expressed on every side at the beauty of the models and the delightful creations being displayed in this novel manner.

On a rear side runway, so that they could be seen by all, each pretty model pivoted about with her creation, the models were selected from the popular local misses and proved as capable as the most efficient professionals. The Misses Helen Green, Nelta Stone, Mary Sue Denson, Jane Tyson, Eloise Rogers, Eugenia Wallace, Francis Looney and Mabel Wilson were the models.

Miss Rogers sang several selections from Spring Songs and Mrs. Jack Foster accompanied her with pretty airs during the staging of the parade.

The models appeared in a large frame of flowers, each in an arch of beautiful palms and flowers, and the costumes were worthy of mention. These dresses were placed on sale after each performance of which there were three.

The J. P. Werner & Co., are to be complimented on their efforts to bring something new to Cameron, and the success of their ten days advertising campaign proves without question that advertising thru local mediums, carefully prepared and handled pays.

Harry Harding, of Kansas City, who is directing the show, has formerly directed many beautiful shows in large cities, and he is to be congratulated on this effort in Cameron.

The Ten Days Selling Campaign closes Saturday Night.

Cameron Defeats Rockdale In Tennis Tournament Here

The Yoe High tennis team, consisting of Richard Vest and Tom Howell in the doubles, and Richard Vest in the singles, decisively defeated the Rockdale High School last Saturday on the Yoe High Courts. This gives Cameron the Championship of the county, Rockdale having previously defeated other entrants. The team will go to Calvert Saturday and try to carry off the district title. Rockdale was unable to win a single set of the entire match. The result of the double was 6-0, 6-3, 6-3. After the first set, the Cameron boys took it easy, as it was apparent they were a much stronger team. They were never forced to extend themselves. By agreement, only two sets were played in the singles, the result being 6-0, 6-0, with Cameron on the long end of the score.

The match was refereed by H. D. Keeling.

"PRUDENCE"

By FLORENCE MELLISH

WHEN Amos Whiting told Hawkins to give Oscar French something on the Eagle, Oscar did not have the vanity to think it was wholly on account of his own journalistic ability. Oscar's father had been Amos Whiting's closest chum. But Oscar had a knack for writing, and he meant to make good.

"You'll have to take whatever, Hawkins gives you, even if it doesn't happen to suit your taste; then, by and by, you may get something different."

"We're swamped with sub reporters already. But if Whiting—see here, you may have 'The Twilight Hour,' Mrs. Starkweather is laid up indefinitely. You give advice to girls, discreet and sensible, but sympathetic. See? Your desk is over there by the window. I'll send you some of Mrs. Starkweather's files so that you can get her drift. Your signature will be 'Prudence Kenworthy.'"

"But— isn't that a lady's name?" Oscar gasped.

"Of course, and you want to be lady-like and refined, you know. No rough stuff and no slang. You'll soon get the feminine touch."

"Great Caesar!" groaned Oscar French. "I don't want to get a feminine touch. I want a man's job."

Hawkins turned a curt shoulder. "That's all I have for you now. You can take it or leave it."

Young French set his teeth. "I'll take it."

"Oh, you'll like it when you get started, especially when the personal letters come in. But don't try to answer many of them. It's a waste of time."

Young French strode over to the desk by the window and buried himself in Mrs. Starkweather's files. He began his unbecomingly task with grim determination, and soon had the satisfaction of feeling that at least he was equal to it. When some waggish reporters left an offering of camellias and maidenhair ferns with a box of chocolates on his desk he placidly dumped the flowers into the wastebasket and ate the candy with ostentatious relish.

Oscar's manly determination to get the feminine touch was a success. He soon out-Prudenced Prudence herself, and the personal letters poured in assuring Miss Kenworthy that she was "better and better every day."

The personal letters! He did enjoy them, though he followed Hawkins' advice and answered few of them. But he did write personally to Georgie Goodale. Georgie wasn't sentimental or whiny, and she had some "pep." She lived in Martinville with her aunt Rachel. Aunt Rachel was a dear, but she wouldn't let Georgie do anything that the other young people did, and she was opposed to Georgie's studying law.

"Dear Miss Kenworthy," Georgie wrote, "your letters are a comfort and an inspiration, too. The twilight hour is the best in my day. But I'd give my new camera for a talk with you face-to-face. Now you like fishing; you said you did. Back of our cottage is a wonderful trout brook, and Aunt Rachel's luncheons are gorgeous. Can't we make a date?"

Oscar French caught at the idea. He did make a date with Georgie. He laughed at the mirrored image of his fisherman's costume in anticipation of her surprise. He looked forward like a schoolboy to the tete-a-tete and the good fishing and Aunt Rachel's "gorgeous luncheon." But when he actually stood on the platform of Marshville station he scanned the faces of the women waiting there, half dreading to meet Georgie.

"I have lots of freckles and look like a boy," she had written. He failed to identify the buoyant and vivacious Georgie in the middle-aged and faded-looking group. A lanky, freckled youth encumbered with fishing tackle, was watching the women who alighted from the train.

"I'm looking for Prudence Kenworthy," he announced impersonally. "Hello, Georgie," called a genial employee, who was carrying leather mailbags.

Oscar faced the freckled youth. "That's one of my names."

The freckled youth grinned. "I'm Georgie. The joke's on me," he added magnanimously.

"No, it's on me," French insisted, not to be outdone. "You have the freckles, at any rate. Is there a real trout brook?"

"You bet your life there is! and a cloudy day like this—oh, boy! Come on, partner, and we'll show 'em."

"I'm glad you aren't a lady," Georgie confided to his companion when the wicker baskets were nearly full. "I was beginning to have cold feet."

"So was I," French acknowledged.

"Well, it's time for luncheon, and Aunt Rachel promised to make a peach short-cake. I guess she'll have chicken salad, too."

They tramped across the fields and approached the cottage from the back. "There's Aunt Rachel in the doorway," cried Georgie, who was striding ahead in the narrow path.

Oscar looked over Georgie's shoulder. That union of girlish grace and womanly poise? Why, Aunt Rachel was peaches and cream!

"Luncheon's ready, Georgie," she called and vanished.

Georgie waved his guest up the broad, low stone steps. Oscar French drew in the fragrance of hot coffee and short-cake and, passing through the low vine-wreathed doorway, he followed Aunt Rachel like a sheep.

An Easter Sermon

Power of Life Eternal

By S. J. Duncan Clark

THE season of the resurrection story has come again. Throughout the Christian world the minds and hearts of men are turned to dwell upon a fact which no naturalistic critic of the Gospels has ever succeeded in explaining away.

Faith may differ over whether the reported resurrection experiences of the followers of Jesus were objective or subjective, but history records beyond effective contradiction the compelling and transforming result upon life and character of those experiences. Whatever doubt may be held as to whether the men and women who testified to seeing the risen Christ, looked with the eyes of the body upon an actual physical manifestation of their Master, there can be no doubt as to the certainty of their conviction that He whom they had seen taken from the cross, whose body had been laid in Joseph's tomb, survived as a real and living presence in their midst. This faith brought together the frightened and dejected group of disciples in the spirit of confident rejoicing; it carried them through arduous labor and bitter persecution; it won to them increasing adherents; it triumphed over every difficulty, over all opposition. It became the power of the life eternal, giving new significance to all life, new meaning to all the lessons they learned from the Master's lips.

We may build this faith upon the empty tomb, but, in fact, it had deeper foundation than that. It went back behind the tomb and the cross to the living Christ as they had known Him. Everything that they had seen of Him and heard of Him made it reasonable, made it logical, made it, in a sense, inevitable. He had lived in the power of the life eternal. It was inconceivable that the beauty, the goodness and the truth which found embodiment in Him could perish, that the personality which they expressed could be less than forever enduring. The existence of these values—inseparable from personality—was essential to the understanding of life as anything more than a purposeless tragedy, a futile breath in a chaotic and meaningless world.

To have known Jesus was to have known that there is a spiritual reality which transcends the material and the temporal. This consciousness had been quickened in the souls of His followers. The jealous hatred of His foes, the brutal cross of Roman power, the sealed tomb—these were the evanescent, the illusory means whereby it was stupidly sought to destroy the eternal reality of His love, His wisdom, His soaring faith in God. And the effort had failed. How could it be otherwise? How can it ever be otherwise?

And the meaning of His life was just this—that the reality in the life of all men is the possibility of becoming like Him, of expressing beauty and goodness and truth, of living now and always in the power of the life eternal.

To him who has seen this possibility, faith in the continuity of life, in the persistence of personality, comes naturally and will not permit of contradiction; to him death is merely an incident—not even an interruption—it is a step in the process, an escape from the shadows of illusion into the full light of reality. It is robbed of fears and, robbed in the glory of hope.

The effect of such a faith and such a hope is seen in the story of the early church, a story marked by suddenly intensified interest in the supreme importance of human values by the flaming of a splendid spiritual idealism against the background of a world given over to the flesh, by the immediate broadening of sympathies in a race of narrow prejudices to overwhelm and submerge the ingrained prejudices of tradition and former religious training, by the emphasis upon justice and brotherhood in human relations, upon character and unselfish services. Men and women began to live the life eternal, personality was appraised in terms of the enduring, and the things of time and change fell back into their proper subordinate places.

It is a revival of that resurrection faith which the world needs today, a faith in the reality of the continuing life and the things which belong to it. Nothing else can save us from the perverted sense of values which curses humanity, from the circling pursuit of illusion, from the vain struggle for that which cannot satisfy.

The vital message of this Easter season is the call to every man to live in the light and power of the life eternal, and the assurance that to every man such a life is possible. Jesus lived it supremely. Those who dare to follow where He leads may know its joy, and, when the world accepts His leadership it will find both righteousness and peace—these treasures it can never find while it gropes amid the shadows of its passing pride and pomp.

The Easter Message

Easter that answers humanity's deepest longing, that promises fulfillment of its sweetest hope, should bring each one of us a message which will give meaning and beauty to everyday life, and to every duty. Listen to it.

Drugs Excite the Kidneys, Drink Water

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble because we often eat too much rich food. Our blood is filled with acids which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or if you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, begin drinking lots of good soft water and get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

History of Lent

By H. L. Mills

MILLIONS of followers of the Christian faith over the world are at this season making preparations for the Easter festival, the most important occasion in the Christian calendar.

"If Christ be not risen from the dead, then is our preaching vain," said Paul, and the whole Christian structure rests upon the resurrection as its foundation. Without the resurrection the hope of humanity is gone, for only in a living Christ is there salvation.

The death and resurrection of Christ are primarily involved in the keeping of the Lenten season, which is observed formally by the older branches of the Christian church. The different churches vary in their practices in the observance of the forty days preceding Easter, but the spirit prompting the observance is the same in all. Some of the Protestant churches do not observe Lent, but many ministers find it a propitious time for evangelistic effort, and in recent years some very successful evangelistic campaigns have been waged by Protestants in the large cities during the season of Lent.

The history of Lent has many interesting passages. The severe rules of the fast prescribed in the early days have been greatly relaxed during the centuries, as far as they apply to physical observance.

Since the earliest times in religious history fasting at times has been a custom. The patriarchs had great mournings and the ancient Israelites had devotional fasts for the expiation of sins. Moses passed forty days on Mount Horeb in fasting and after Israel was defeated at Ai, Joshua and the elders remained prostrate before the ark from morning until evening without eating. Christ spent forty days in the wilderness in fasting, but however prevalent the custom it does not appear that either Jewish legislation or Christ Himself, either by command or example, ever designated any certain period for fasting.

It is certain, however, that the examples of Moses, Elias and Christ exercised a great influence upon the establishment of the Lenten season in the Christian church, and that observance of the period of forty days was evolved from their examples. Modern scholarship rejects the claim that Lent was of apostolic institution, although some of the early fathers contended that it was. While the apostles fasted at seasons and enjoined the practice upon others, the specific Lenten observance was evolved after apostolic times.

In the Catholic Encyclopedia, which is the principal authority upon Catholic history and teachings, some interesting facts are recited about this season, which, whatever its exact origin, has been religiously observed every year for at least 1,700 years.

The word Lent itself is a Teutonic word, which has been in use since the Anglo-Saxon period, and is generally used in preference to the Latin term "Quadragesima," meaning the "Forty days." The forty-day observance of "Lent" is not mentioned by the pre-Nicene fathers, but St. Athanasius of Alexandria, after traveling over Europe wrote in 339 that a fast was generally practiced in Europe and he enjoined upon the Alexandrians to do likewise, "to the end that while all the world is fasting, we who are in Egypt should not become a laughing stock as the only people who do not fast, but take our pleasures in these days."

As the centuries passed, there was great diversity in the practices of keeping Lent, but from the earliest times there was a prohibition against the eating of meat, and it was deemed especially pious to refrain from eating eggs or fruit with a hard covering. In the beginning there was no prohibition against the "Lactinia," but St. Gregory in writing to St. Augustine from England laid down the rule: "We abstain from flesh meat and from all things from flesh, eggs, milk and cheese." There were special dispensations for eating these products, however, and many churches were built with the gifts for these dispensations. Thus a steeple in the cathedral at Rouen was known as "The Butter Tower." The custom of giving Easter eggs, so much enjoyed by the children of today, arose from the prohibition of eggs. The eggs were blessed and given to the children.

Although in the early Middle Ages the rules of the fast were very strict, with only one light meal on week days and that in the evenings, and no flesh on Sundays, the rules began to be less rigid a little later. It became the custom to break the fast at three o'clock in the afternoon or the period called "none." Charlemagne is said to have taken his Lenten repast at two o'clock in the afternoon. Gradually the time was moved up to midday, as none was a period rather than an hour, and the repast was eventually taken at twelve o'clock, and the word "none" is perpetuated in our word "noon."

The collation was introduced in the Ninth century when the council at Aix-la-Chapelle sanctioned that concession. It began with allowing in monasteries a draught of water to the inmates at evening after a day of labor. From this the much larger indulgence was developed. The principle that a small quantity of food, but not taken as a regular meal, did not break the fast, was adopted by Thomas Aquinas, the celebrated Dominican theologian, and in the course of centuries taking of food not to exceed eight ounces became recognized as a lawful custom of the church. It took the name of "collation" because it was first taken in the monasteries at the hour at which the "Collationes" of Abbot Cassian were read aloud to the brethren.

In modern times the Catholic church prescribes rules more lenient, especially for the working people who are not prohibited from eating flesh meat except on Fridays, Ash Wednesdays and Saturday of Holy week, and soldiers and sailors in active service are dispensed from the law of abstinence except on Ash Wednesday, and several other holy days.

Aside from the fasting as an observance of the Lenten season the Catholic church conducts special services at stated times and the fundamental doctrines of the church are preached and other ceremonies carried out. It is the desire that all should refrain from all pleasures during this forty-day period and keep their minds and hearts upon spiritual things.

The other churches that observe Lent dispense with the fast but stress the period as a time for self-examination and prayer, and re consecration to Christ. Their members also dispense with ordinary worldly pleasures during the Lenten season and observe it as a period of extra religious effort.

murder and riot in connection with the fatal disorders Saturday night at Lilly when two men were killed and a score injured, several seriously, in rioting between the townspeople and visiting klansmen.

The application for a writ of habeas corpus was made after counsel for the accused men had waived preliminary hearing. They were held without bail for the June term of court on the charges preferred earlier in the day by District Attorney Weimer. A hearing upon the habeas corpus application was set for Wednesday afternoon. District Attorney Weimer declared tonight that the investigation into the disorder was being pushed vigorously but he was unable to say whether any additional arrests would be made. He stated that the four men arrested at Lilly on the charges of riot had been admitted to bail pending a preliminary hearing.

Little hope is entertained for the recovery of Frank Miasco and Patrick Bradley, both of Lilly, who were shot in the rioting according to reports from the Altoona hospital. The murder charge named Phillip Conrad and Floyd Paul as the victims of the fight.

Severe Pains in Side

"I HAD had quite a bad spell and sickness," writes Mrs. Emma Patrick, of Caney, Ky., "and it was an effort for me to go about my home. I had a very severe pain in my left side that almost took my breath at times. I lost my appetite. I grew thin, pale and lifeless. I fell off till I only weighed about 115 pounds."

"Cardui was recommended to me and by the time I had taken one bottle I saw it was what I needed. I ate more and rested better. I kept taking it and my skin and flesh took on a more healthy color. I felt stronger and, as the nervousness left me, the pain in my side was less severe. After taking nine bottles, I eat anything, go anywhere and feel fine. I weigh 160 pounds and am well. I feel that I owe it all to having used Cardui."

Pain, in certain parts of the body, is a sure indication of female complications. The treatment needed is not the use of narcotic drugs, but—

"If selling a car was all there is to car dealership, no automobile store today would include any other equipment than a desk and some stationery," says G. C. White of the White-House Motor Company.

"Those modern automobile sales establishments everywhere in the United States which include well-equipped service departments, and large stocks of parts and accessories, exist primarily to enable the conscientious dealer to discharge his responsibility for the satisfaction of the one to whom he sells a car."

"Car buyers too seldom realize the importance of local responsibility for a car. They wouldn't think of making an equally large investment with anybody but an established, reputable, responsible business house."

"But they are often prone to buy a car from anybody and later to find out how much more than merely a car should be delivered for the price."

throughout the ages the farm has been the nursery of both great men and great women. The boy reared in the country has been saving the city since the Nazarene came to Jerusalem. In physical, mental and moral strength, the farm-reared have always supplied the outstanding individuals and groups in world leadership. It is the closer kinship with nature which comes of intimate association with the soil that makes the farm-grown product, in its matured manhood and womanhood, leaders in world thought and action; the salvation of the State; the hope of the Nation. Give the boy a chance; let him have, at as early age as may be, a fifty-fifty opportunity for development along the lines that make for individual responsibility and worthy citizenship.

OLYMPIC OFFICIALS PRAISE PERFORMANCE OF TAYLOR, YOUNG BAYLOR TRACY STAR.

New York, April 5.—Olympic officials are jubilant over performances of Jack Taylor, Baylor university athlete, who is breaking all Southwestern conference records in the discus throw. Taylor is six feet, four inches tall and weighs 211 pounds. He played tackle on the Texas institution's eleven last fall.

While only a novice, Taylor has beaten the best throw made in the Olympic games in 1920. In a practice meet at Baylor this year, he tossed the discus 150 feet, 3 inches, within six feet of the world's record.

A Southwestern conference record for this event is 132 feet, 6 inches. A throw of 147 feet won the 1920 Olympics at Antwerp.

A STORY OF TWO BOYS.

(East Texas Register)

"I left my dad, his farm, his plow."

"Because my calf became his cow."

"I left my dad—'twas wrong of course."

"Because my colt became his horse."

"I left my dad to sow and reap."

"Because my lamb became his sheep."

"I dropped my hoe and stuck my fork."

"Because my pig became his pork."

"The garden truck I had to grow."

"Was his to sell and mine to hoe."

Why Another boy didn't:

"With dad and me its half and half."

"The cow I own was once his calf."

"No town for mine, I will not bolt."

"Because my horse was once his colt."

"I'm going to stick right where I am."

"Because my sheep was once his lamb."

"I'll stay with dad—he gets my vote."

"Because my hog was once his shoat."

"It's fifty-fifty with dad and me."

"A profit-sharing company."

—Unidentified.

The foregoing story of two boys on the farm is literally filled with food for thought. Every father of a boy whether he be a farmer or engaged in some other interesting, delightful, profitable vocation can learn a lesson of unmeasured benefit to both himself and his boy, from this story. And the adjectives are not misapplied. Farm life can be, and is being made interesting, delightful and profitable on thousands of farms in Texas, and multiplied thousands throughout the land. The fifty-fifty basis of co-operation between father and sons is having its legitimate effect in every line of useful endeavor and in no place or calling are the results more fruitful than on the farm, where character is being formed by those who are at the same time feeding the world.

While the growing of crops is a State and National necessity, the development of boys and girls into a splendid citizenship of men and women is of no less importance, and

HEALTH—ITS IMPORTANCE TO THE SCHOOLS.

Health, when spoken of, does not seem so important as it is. This fact is a great principle, for if it were not for our health we could not succeed. It is the greatest factor in our lives. Dr. Sutton, at the head of the health campaign, is putting up posters in our school and town. These signs bring out the main points in health, showing what they mean to us.

Three especially striking ones are in the study hall. One says that the six best doctors are sunshine, water, rest, fresh air, exercise and diet. The other two were timely advice. The first was, "be re-examined every birthday," and the second told us to drink more pure milk.

The children want to help in this work of the campaign. They need better health for if they do not have this essential they will be continually missing school on account of sickness. An unhealthy person is more likely to contract a disease than a healthy one. When a person with a vigorous constitution may get well sooner than the average person because his body is well developed and built up and ready to combat the germs of the disease. The schools are very careful that a child with a disease does not come to school as it exposes other children to the danger of infection. Therefore, the people of Cameron should think of the word HEALTH more seriously than heretofore.

A MUCH ENJOYED PICNIC.

Last Friday afternoon, after school about thirty pupils of the seventh grades went to R. L. Batte's pasture for a picnic. This happy crowd chaperoned by Mr. Guy Newton, Mrs. Joe Denson, and Misses Jackson and Caldwell, all teachers in the Grammar School, were soon at this picnic grounds.

Bats and balls were brought along and after a short rest a game of base ball was started between the girls and boys. However, some of the boys did not play and the girls had two or three players to one on the boys side. During the ball game, the chaperones had built a fire and had cooked some "weenies," and fixed overflowing plates of good things to eat. Just as the boys were beginning to play in earnest, a boy with an empty stomach discovered that every thing was ready to eat and he lost no time telling the others. Every one was told to form a line and each person was to get one helping. Some boys ate their supper alone under a tree, while others preferred to eat with the girls, (most of the boys at with the girls.)

After eating, some one found a sack of cakes in Miss Jackson's car and as usual the best "scrappers" got the lion's share.

On account of a Boy Scout meeting that night, the crowd was forced to start home early because many of the boys are members of the order. The scouts rode to town in order to save time. A good time was had by all and each one regretted that it was not Saturday so they could have gone earlier and stayed later.

THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA.

The Scout organization is growing rapidly. Many new boys are coming into our patrols. New members average something like two boys every three weeks. This Boy Scout movement is a great help to boys and it has long been needed in Cameron.

The Scouts meet at the court house Friday evening at 6:15 o'clock. They hiked to Little Bear Creek. Troop No. 2, pitched camp on a gravel bar and set about making preparation for cooking supper. After supper they built a rock wall around the island about a foot high and also a small rock bridge to cross over the creek to the camp. There were twelve boys in the group with C. S. Terry as scout master and Drayton McLane as assistant scout master. This camp No. 2, No. 1 is in Wilson-Ledbetter Park. Plans are being made for sign posts for these camps so that no one will intrude and in case some one is late he will have no trouble in locating the other members of the party.

The Scouts being taught the various "route men," "double time," and "break time."

The boys were dismissed near the court house, from there going to their respective homes.

The patrols are to meet separately next Friday evening.

Cameron Defeats Rockdale In Tennis Tournament Here

The Yoe High tennis team, consisting of Richard Vest and Tom Howell in the doubles, and Richard Vest in the singles, decisively defeated the Rockdale High School last Saturday on the Yoe High Courts. This gives Cameron the Championship of the county, Rockdale having previously defeated other entrants. The team will go to Calvert Saturday and try to carry off the district title. Rockdale was unable to win a single set of the entire match. The result of the double was 6-0, 6-3, 6-3. After the first set, the Cameron boys took it easy, as it was apparent they were a much stronger team. They were never forced to extend themselves. By agreement, only two sets were played in the singles, the result being 6-0, 6-0, with Cameron on the long end of the score. The match was refereed by H. D. Keeling.

Religious developments. Accordingly the Presbyterians of Texas are now engaged in a state wide move to enlarge their work and accordingly Cameron Presbyterians in a fine co-operative movement will share in this larger destiny of their faith. The local congregation will have shown not only vision to comprehend all local needs but are thinking in large terms.

As a part of the school building program nothing could be more comprehensive as a civic measure than a united effort to improve the Yoe High school campus. Civic clubs interested in these problems should at once concentrate on some definite plan of improvement. Some months ago the services of a landscape artist was secured and it is said that plans have been submitted. Considerable delay has been experienced already but with proper interest shown the work can be done this spring.

Nerve to do something is worth more than cash capital.

An Easter Sermon

Power of Life Eternal

By S. J. Duncan Clark

THE season of the resurrection story has come again. Throughout the Christian world the minds and hearts of men are turned to dwell upon a fact which no naturalistic critic of the Gospels has ever succeeded in explaining away.

Faith may differ over whether the reported resurrection experiences of the followers of Jesus were objective or subjective, but history records beyond effective contradiction the compelling and transforming result upon life and character of those experiences. Whatever doubt may be held as to whether the men and women who testified to seeing the risen Christ, looked with the eyes of the body upon an actual physical manifestation of their Master, there can be no doubt as to the certainty of their conviction that He whom they had seen taken from the cross, whose body had been laid in Joseph's tomb, survived as a real and living presence in their midst. This faith brought together the frightened and dejected group of disciples in the spirit of confident rejoicing; it carried them through arduous labor and bitter persecution; it won to them increasing adherents; it triumphed over every difficulty, over all opposition. It became the power of the life eternal, giving new significance to all life, new meaning to all the lessons they learned from the Master's lips.

We may build this faith upon the empty tomb, but, in fact, it had deeper foundation than that. It went back behind the tomb and the cross to the living Christ as they had known Him. Everything that they had seen of Him and heard of Him made it reasonable, made it logical, made it, in a sense, inevitable. He had lived in the power of the life eternal. It was inconceivable that the beauty, the goodness and the truth which found embodiment in Him could perish, that the personality which they expressed could be less than forever enduring. The existence of these values—inseparable from personality—was essential to the understanding of life as anything more than a purposeless tragedy, a futile breath in a chaotic and meaningless world.

To have known Jesus was to have known that there is a spiritual reality which transcends the material and the temporal. This consciousness had been quickened in the souls of His followers. The jealous hatred of His foes, the brutal cross of Roman power, the sealed tomb—these were the evanescent, the illusory means whereby it was stupidly sought to destroy the eternal reality of His love, His wisdom. His soaring faith in God. And the effort had failed. How could it be otherwise? How can it ever be otherwise?

And the meaning of His life was just this—that the reality in the life of all men is the possibility of becoming like Him, of expressing beauty and goodness and truth, of living now and always in the power of the life eternal. To him who has seen this possibility, faith in the continuity of life, in the persistence of personality, comes naturally and will not permit of contradiction; to him death is merely an incident—not even an interruption—it is a step in the process, an escape from the shadows of illusion into the full light of reality. It is robbed of fears and robed in the glory of hope.

The effect of such a faith and such a hope is seen in the story of the early church, a story marked by suddenly intensified interest in the supreme importance of human values by the flaring of a splendid spiritual idealism against the background of a world given over to the flesh, by the immediate broadening of sympathies in a race of narrow prejudices to overwhelm and submerge the ingrained prejudices of tradition and former religious training, by the emphasis upon justice and brotherhood in human relations, upon character and unselfish services. Men and women began to live the life eternal, personality was appraised in terms of the enduring, and the things of time and change fell back into their proper subordinate places.

It is a revival of that resurrection faith which the world needs today, a faith in the reality of the continuing life and the things which belong to it. Nothing else can save us from the perverted sense of values which curses humanity, from the circling pursuit of illusion, from the vain struggle for that which cannot satisfy. The vital message of this Easter season is the call to every man to live in the light and power of the life eternal, and the assurance that to every man such a life is possible. Jesus lived it supremely. Those who dare to follow where He leads may know His leadership it will find both righteousness and peace—these treasures it can never find while it gropes amid the shadows of its passing pride and pomp.

The Easter Message

Easter that answers humanity's deepest longing, that promises fulfillment of its sweetest hope, should bring each one of us a message which will give meaning and beauty to everyday life, and to every duty. Listen to it.

BAYLOR COLLEGE CHORAL CLUB DIRECTOR FAMOUS

ALLIE COLEMAN PIERCE NOTED
THROUGHOUT COUNTRY AS DIRECTOR OF MUSIC.

Allie Coleman Pierce, director of the state-famous Baylor College Choral Club which will appear here in concert at the Yee High School at 8 o'clock Saturday night, April 12th has a national reputation as a teacher and singer. As director of the Choral Club for last four years, she has been pronounced one of the most able song leaders in the South.

"She has a mezzo-soprano voice of the natural quality, ample range and power," says Karleton Hackett, associate director of the American Conservatory of Music, Chicago, of which Mrs. Pierce is a graduate. "She is well equipped artist and sings with musical appreciation and interpretative force."

Before coming to Baylor College in 1919 as associate professor of voice and director of the Choral Club, Mrs. Pierce was private teacher in New York for several years. She is a Texas artist, however, having been born in McKinney. She has also taught voice in Howard Payne College, Brownwood; and St. Mary's College, Dallas. She possesses a magnificent singing voice and she uses it well.

Mrs. Pierce has had Italian training with Georgie M. Bulli of New York; German and French operas and art song with Barron Berthold, New York, and special coaching of programs with David Bispham also of New York.

She always scores a success with her singing club. Last year, the Baylor College Choral Club was said to have been one of the most successful concerts ever presented in San Antonio for pure enjoyment on the part of the audience.

dured many hardships and perilous undertakings when only a lad.

Like many other youths of those days his opportunities for an education were limited. When the war between the states came on he was too young to enlist but did his part helping his mother and other women care for their families. He was the oldest of a family of 10 children, four brothers and one sister still survive him.

On Jan. 11, 1872 he was married to Margret Emily Campbell. To this union 4 children were born, two Mrs. W. A. Robinson of Minerva, Texas, and J. L. York of Gause, and eight grandchildren survive him.

In 1897 his faithful wife who had away and in 1900 he was married to Mrs. Mary Peoples, who survives him.

At the age of 20 in the old Chiesman church he was gloriously converted and united with the Cumberland Presbyterian church of which he has been a member since. He never once doubted his conversion and lived an upright Christian life before his children and friends. To know him was to know he was a Christian.

The family altar was established when his home was established and my first impression of this good man was his morning and evening prayer and those prayers have been an inspiration to me for many years. He has left a spiritual inheritance to his children and grandchildren that is worth far more than wealth.

To the bereaved we would commend them to Him who "doeth all things well, who hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows."

Recognize the hand of God in this sad loss; his eternal gain.

Not dead but sleeping. Night came releasing him from labor. When a hand from out of darkness Touched his hand and he slept.

A. Friend.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, say well-known druggists here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

When the kidneys are weak. Nature tells you about it. The urine is nature's index. Infrequent or too frequent passage. Other disorders suggest kidney ills.

Doan's Pills are for disordered kidneys.

Cameron people testify to their worth. Ask your neighbor!

Melvin Weems, E. Second St., Cameron, says: "Whenever I took cold or when there was a sudden change in the weather, my kidneys bothered me by acting too freely. There was a sediment in the secretions and they burned in passage. My back got so lame, the muscles all through it were sore. I had taken all kinds of medicine, but didn't get any help at all. The doctor told me to take Doan's Pills. I got a supply of Doan's and took them as directed. They cured me and my kidneys have been strong since then."

The family altar was established when his home was established and my first impression of this good man was his morning and evening prayer and those prayers have been an inspiration to me for many years. He has left a spiritual inheritance to his children and grandchildren that is worth far more than wealth.

To the bereaved we would commend them to Him who "doeth all things well, who hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows."

Recognize the hand of God in this sad loss; his eternal gain.

Not dead but sleeping. Night came releasing him from labor. When a hand from out of darkness Touched his hand and he slept.

A. Friend.

METHODIST MISSIONARY HOLDS COUNTY MEETING

MEMBERS FROM SURROUNDING TOWNS MEET HERE TO DISCUSS FUTURE PLANS.

Monday afternoon at 3 p. m. the Woman's Missionary Society of the Cameron church received members from Rockdale, Rosebud and Ben Arnold Societies in the Methodist church Auditorium.

Reports from delegates who attended the recent conference at Texarkana gave a resume of the work accomplished and passed on plans for the year's work. The theme of the Conference, "The Power of the Risen Lord," was presented in each message.

Members of the Ben Arnold Society, organized this year through the efforts of Mrs. W. O. Triggs, were introduced as the "Baby Society of Texas Conference."

Since cenary funds will not be available after the present year, each local organization was urged to provide for signal increase of the Missionary Pledge so that the present force of workers might be maintained and twenty-three new workers placed in the foreign work.

A new group of Junior workers has been added to Cameron Society as a result of enthusiasm engendered at the Texarkana Conference.

Six societies in Melin District were reported on the honor roll for last year.

Special mention of the work of the young people of Rosebud, Calvert, Marlin and Cameron was made.

MISS JANIE WILSON DROWNS IN CREEK AT SUGAR LAND.

The body of Miss Janie Wilson, about 30 years old, was recovered at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning from a creek in front of the home where she was staying in Sugar Land two hours after it was discovered she was not in her room.

The body was brought to Houston and funeral services were held at the Evans Memorial church at 3 Tuesday afternoon. The body was sent to Nacogdoches at 8.15 o'clock Tuesday night and burial will be there Wednesday. Justice of the Peace W. N. Williams rendered a verdict of death by drowning.

Miss Wilson was a missionary worker for the Brazos Presbytery of the Presbyterian church and her work has been for the last two years in the Evans Memorial church. She had had special missionary training for this work. The funeral service Tuesday afternoon was preached by Rev. C. C. Weaver, superintendent of missions for Brazos Presbytery.

The strain of overwork had brought Miss Wilson to the verge of a nervous collapse and she had gone to Sugar Land to visit at the home of her aunt, Miss Annie Watson, and a great aunt, Mrs. C. M. Brown. Monday night her nervous condition was such as to cause her aunts to worry about her and at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning they discovered she was not in her bed.

The alarm was given at once and searchers dragged the creek about 20 yards in front of the house and found the body.

Besides the two aunts, the only surviving relative is a sister, Mrs. A. T. Mast of Nacogdoches, to whom the body will be sent.—Houston Chronicle

Miss Wilson was a cousin of R. D. Brown of Cameron, manager of the compress and city secretary and treasurer. The news of the death of Miss Wilson was received Wednesday and the friends of Mr. Brown deeply sympathize with him in the loss of his relative.

It grows—it spreads—it envelops everything in its path. It cannot be resisted. It is "The Red Lights."

COUNTY DEMONSTRATOR TALKS AT MAYSFIELD.

Our County Demonstrator, Miss Henry, met with the Maysfield girls on last Friday, April 4th.

Owing to so much measles in our community, not many of the pupils were present.

Because of so many being absent, we did not do much work. Miss Henry made an interesting talk on the program for the summer months and also about the prizes for our work.

Miss Henry gives us a lesson on every first and third Friday's in each month. At any time on these days if any of the mothers have any work they want her to help them with, Miss Henry is always glad to help them.

We appreciate Miss Henry's work very much, as we know it is very useful, and we are always glad to have her with us.

supply of trained ministers, with the result that hundreds of churches are now without a pastor.

Since the presenting of the Educational movement to the congregation on Sunday arrangements for the campaign have been pushed rapidly forward.

Judge W. G. Gillis has been asked by the Executive committee in charge of the work to head the teams who make the canvass. Judge Gillis has announced that there will be four teams of men, and two of ladies used in the work.

The leaders of these teams, called 'professors' are Messrs. B. P. Atkinson, Giles L. Avriett, J. G. Davis, C. R. Phillips and Mesdames B. F. Atkinson and W. G. Gillis. These team leaders are choosing their helpers, and all will be present on Thursday at seven-thirty at the new manse of the church, for a dinner at which the final instruction for workers will be given by Judge Gillis and W. T. Ditzer, of the staff of the Movement. In commenting upon this meeting, Judge Gillis said "The time has come for us to show our ability to see beyond the needs of our local work. We as Presbyterians must face fairly the needs of this movement, and must each of us do all in his power for its success." The first report of the workers will be made on Friday evening.

The ladies of the church under the leadership of Mrs. J. H. Sapp, President of the Ladies Auxiliary, and Mrs. Giles L. Avriett, have planned to make a census of the Presbyterian homes of Cameron, getting the names of all young people of school age who may be new or at some future time interested in attending a Presbyterian school. This information is to be sent to Rev. Henry H. Swets, the Secretary of the Committee of Education for the Southern Presbyterian Church.
